For Immediate Release

August 26, 2025

With hockey season right around the corner, families and fans in Niagara-on-the-Lake can stay connected to the action thanks to LiveBarn, a streaming service available at both the Meridian Credit Union and Centennial Arenas. This on-demand platform allows parents, families, and fans to watch their favourite local athletes on the ice from anywhere, ensuring no game or key moment is missed.

“Adding LiveBarn improves the sport’s experience for families and teams, enabling them to stay connected to the games that matter most,” stated Lord Mayor Gary Zalepa. “I’m pleased that LiveBarn is available in our arenas, further enhancing the recreational opportunities we offer in Niagara-on-the-Lake.”

Subscribers can tune in to live or on-demand games from any participating arena equipped with the service. It’s perfect for reviewing plays, running team film sessions, or catching the action when you can’t make it in person. Families can enjoy the convenience of streaming from home or on the go.

“This is another step forward in modernizing our services for residents,” stated CAO Nick Ruller. “I’d like to thank Staff for bringing this opportunity forward. LiveBarn is another way we are modernizing recreation services and supporting both players and their families as they enjoy the upcoming season.”
